1. Introduction

Under UK data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how our school uses any personal data that we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing 'privacy notices' (sometimes called 'fair processing notices') to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about pupils at our school.

This privacy notice applies while we believe your child is not capable of understanding and exercising their own data protection rights.

Once your child is able to understand their rights over their own data (generally considered to be age 12, but this has to be considered on a case-by-case basis), you should instead refer to our privacy notice for pupils to see what rights they have over their own personal data. Please refer to Privacy Notice for Pupils available on the school website.

Our trust, Flying High (info@flyinghightrust.co.uk, 0115 989 1915, Unit 2A Vickery Way, NG9 6RY) is the 'data controller' for the purposes of UK data protection law.

Our data protection officer is Louise Barber, though in the first instance all matters should be referred to the Flying High Operations Manager, Nick Layfield, who will liaise with the DPO as appropriate (see 'Contact us' below).
